

Guarantee (Bond) for Dutiable Goods

The company

[Redacted area]

herewith declares and recognizes:

1. Consignments which they receive under the common transit procedure (T1) will be presented to the Customs Office of Destination intact and unaltered, and within the prescribed terms.
2. They hold themselves liable for all damages ensuing from any breach of this regulation and the given directions.

Directions for the Recipient of Goods within the Common Transit Procedure

- The MRN document T1 has to be cleared and presented to the Customs Office of Destination.
- The principal of the T1 document has to be informed by fax or by email about any circumstances hindering the normal process of the transport and/or the presentation of the goods to the Customs Office of Destination.

Furthermore, the company Messrs [Redacted] declares that they regularly receive dutiable goods and that they are able to effect the customs clearance.

Our registration no. of authorised consignee is [Redacted] as per (EU) 952/2013 art. 233 and (EU) 2015/2446 art. 196 (copy of authorisation attached)
Our competent customs office is [Redacted].

[Redacted area]

Place / date / stamp / sign

SZ-T-3041-16-EN

